

Refunds>Returns: online payments

East Glendalough School accepts no obligation to refund any fee (or part fee) paid by or on behalf of a student to the school or to a family/student who withdraws from the school or a school event. A full refund may only be possible in the circumstance where an event does not proceed. If the school has paid a non-refundable deposit for an event then the deposit refund will not be given in this case.

If you are dissatisfied with any of these terms and conditions and/or with any other of the applicable provisions of the school's regulations you should not use this facility.
